

As a member of one of the world's largest and most-impactful youth-serving nonprofits, JA British Columbia (JABC) delivers hands-on, immersive learning in work readiness, financial health and entrepreneurship with the support of community volunteers.

Why volunteer with JABC?

- ❖ Enhance your leadership, mentorship, and presentation skills
- ❖ Positively impact and inspire young people
- ❖ Give back to the community
- ❖ Have fun!

JABC needs volunteers who:

- ❖ Have business knowledge and experience
- ❖ Have a good command of the English language
- ❖ Feel comfortable presenting information and ideas to a class of students
- ❖ Enjoy working with and mentoring young people
- ❖ Are patient, flexible, organized and engaging

Opportunities are flexible

- ❖ Choose a program based on your area of expertise
- ❖ Commit from just 4-8 hours per school year
- ❖ Mentor in-class or virtually from your desk
- ❖ You can even volunteer with a friend or colleague
- ❖ JABC provides the training, curriculum, materials, and a classroom ready to meet you!

“ I volunteer because I feel it's so important to give kids a head start on financial knowledge and send them on a track towards making good decisions with their money. ”

-Jacquie Haycroft
